The Papillon pups are at it again, in a genuinely heartwarming story in which the trappings of Halloween figure prominently! Children love this story, in part because it so humorously captures the inner lives of adorable canines Habanero and his younger sister, Jalapeno, as they navigate the joys and dilemmas imposed by the Halloween decorations appearing all around their home. Add to that the mystery of the missing pumpkins and its thoroughly delightful conclusion (courtesy of our dynamic doggy duo), and you've got a bedtime story kids want to read or have read to them over and over again. Author Kevin Brougher's knack for crafting catchy rhymes meshes beautifully with Jessica Warrick's vibrant and expressive artwork to serve up something truly special in A Papillon Pumpkin Tale!
